'TIS SWEET, THOUGH SAD, AT EVEN.

'Tis sweet, though sad, at even,
When the fire's light is low,
To gather 'round the hearthstone
In the ember's fitful glow,
And call from memory's keeping
The cherished ones of yore—
The beautiful and lovely,
Who dwell with us no more.

Those bright and happy children
That need to please us so,
Like buds at Autumn's coming,
Th y perished long ago.
The fair and gentle maidens
Who blessed these homes of ours—
Ah, me, they too departed,
And left us with the flowers.

As these come thronging 'round us,
From friendship's broken chain,
We half forget our sorrow
In seeing them again;
Once more their eyes seem sorrowing
In a sea of holy light,
As if their souls were dreaming
Of a better world's delight.

Then, at the close of even,
When on the hall it wail
The shadows seem to lengthen
Into phantoms grim and tall,
Dear memory brings around us
The friends of other years,
Till our minds grow full of thinking
And our eyes grow dim with tears.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN CATARACT.

Mr. Richard Brown writes to the London Times some facts concerning the recently discovered waterfall on the Potaro river, British Guiana, which is over seven hundred feet in height. The examination of it was made in April last by Mr. Brown, in company with Sir G. Young, Mr. Charles Mitchell and Mr. King. The description says:

The Fall has a clear descent, according to barometical observations taken simultaneously by Mr. Brown at the bottom, and by my colleague, Mr. Mitchell, at the top, of seven hundred and fifty feet. Above the Potaro glides smoothly in a slight depression of the table of conglomerate sandstone and disappears over the edge in a body which we estimated at eighty yards in width, and of depth uncertain in the centre, but shallowing rapidly toward either bank. When Mr. Brown discovered the Fall in April the rocky channel was completely covered, and the stream must have had a width of at least one hundred yards. At present it is diminishing in volume, and, as the Indians assured us, will continue to do so till October, when only the central and deeper portion, about one third of the whole will remain. The best time, therefore, for a visit is in spring, at the end of what appears to be the rainy season of this elevated tract.

As we saw the Fall I cannot imagine anything more beautiful. The central portion, which is never dry, forms a small horseshoe in entering angle, and the water in this part preserves its consistency for a short distance from the ledge. But everywhere else, and here also, at a few feet from the top, all semblance of water disappears; it breaks up, or blossoms into fine foam or spray, which descends in the well known rocket-like forms of the Staubbach and similar water-falls, but multiplied a thousand times, into a small dark pool, over a semi circular curtain of precipice deeply hollowed by the action of the spray. The cavern behind the Fall is the home of thousands of swallows, which issue from it in the morning, and are seen returning in their multitudes at night. The Fall itself is one vast descending column of a fine drylooking, snow-white substance, bearing a resemblance, in color and consistency, to the snow of an avalanche, but surpassing all avalanches I have seen in size, and in the beauty of the terms taken by the material of the Fall. Rainbows of great splendor were observed from the front of the Fall in the morning, one from the summit in the afternoon; but this last reverted, forming a colored loop or ring, into which the whole mass seemed to precipitate itself and disappear, and dart out underneath, black and foaming, at the gorge and outlet of the pool.

EMIGRATION TO THE SOUTHERN STATES.

Colonel Blanton Duncan has recently written a letter to Governor J. W. Stevenson, of Kentucky, in reference to inviting emigration to the Southern States. Col. Duncan, who is now in England, as the Chairman of the committee appointed to present the advantages of the South to capitalists and emigrants, says that the Legislatures have not provided sufficient means to promote the transportation of foreign laborers to this country, and to furnish them with employment immediately on their arrival. He also says that the plan adopted by the British government, to secure emigration to its own colonies, offers greater inducements than those presented by the Southern States. The organizations now at work in England for the colonies, send all kinds of emigrants free, and provides for them temporary shelter and sustenance until situations can be obtained. At any time within a month after arrival, a free passage is given on any of the railroads to such points as the emigrants desire to locate on. To secure full protection to females, all single women are placed under the charge of a matron, both on the voyage and after their arrival. The emigrants, except those who go out as domestics, sign an agreement to reimburse the passage money, $80, to the Government within two years. On the repayment of this sum the emigrant receives 40 acres of land for each grown person, and 20 acres for each child between one and twelve years of age. Those who choose to pay $20 in advance, sign an agreement to return $60 in a year's time and receive the same allotment of land. The Government also assures emigrants of speedy employment in various callings mechanics and skilled laborers at wages of $2 to $3 a day in gold; shepherds $125 to $200 a year, with rations; grooms $200 to $250; farm servants $125 to $150; servant maids from $100 to $200. The weekly rations are 8 pounds of flour, 12 pounds of beef, 2 pounds sugar, and a quarter of a pound of tea for a man and his wife, and half the above to a single person. Colonel Duncan advises that the Legislature of Kentucky should adopt a similar plan.—Wil. Star.

France is realizing the truth of the proverb that "troubles never come singly." In addition to her other overwhelming difficulties she has on her hands a rebellion in Algeria, and to replace the troops lately drawn from that province others have been perforce returned to maintain the French authority.

The steam power employed in this country is equal to 130,000,000 men, but that of Great Britain is vastly greater, being equal to 400,000,000 of men.

Census of Western cities: Milwaukee 71,469, Quincy 24,369, Peoria 22,854, Bloomington 14,600, Fond du Lac 12,771, Keokuk 12,769, Oshkosh 12,675, Rockford 11,563, East Saginaw 11,373, Aurora 11,100.

A chartered company, with a capital of $20,000, has just been organized in St. Louis for the purpose of supplying the citizens with pure milk, and divert their tastes from whiskey.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1870.

IMMIGRATION.

North Carolina needs an accession to her population far beyond what would naturally come into the State from other portions of the Union. Her present population can neither bear the burdens upon them nor develope the resources of the State, so as to enable her to take rank as she ought among her sister States. Virginia, through the active efforts of her people and their disposition to dispose of their surplus lands, has very largely increased her population from the farming and mining populations of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, and other Northern States, which has enhanced the value of her lands, and now she is making efforts for a large immigration from Europe, as a means of supplying the necessary labor and enlarging her operations in agriculture, mining, &c.

In this State, as a means of success in future, we need first and foremost, an accession of substantial planters, skilled in agriculture, to aid in the tillage of our soil. We can see no substantial benefit to be derived, either to the emigrants themselves or to the State, in the immigration of any other class of persons. Artisans, tradesmen, or merchants, we have more of than can find profitable employment. Skilled mechanics, machinists, miners and manufacturers, will not be needed to any great extent, until the agricultural capacity of the State is productive enough to give them employment. Hence we need skilled farmers, experienced in the improvement and culture of the soil, with sufficient means to buy and work our cheap lands. Whoever therefore will devise a feasible and successful plan to induce this kind of population to come into our State, will be a great benefactor.

But why do we need skilled planters and no others? First, they are far preferable at present to common laborers. There is labor enough in the State for present necessities if it was properly directed. One half the soil now ordinarily cultivated, if it were improved, would require but little over half the labor now employed to produce nearly twice its present yield. If we had ten thousand skilled farmers to come into the State, and they were scattered into every county, with means sufficient to buy lands, it would be better for the present interests of the State, than the introduction of twenty thousand laborers. Their example and influence would be felt immediately, and soon there would be a general demand for more labor. Secondly, the increased amount of product from the superior skill of these planters, would give an impetus to the enterprise of the State never before felt, and in a short time the demand for skilled mechanics, artizans, manufacturers and miners would be immense.

The introduction of foreign common laborers in our present condition can only be attended with disappointment. Until the present labor we have is better employed, directed and controlled, we have no use for any additional labor of nearly the same class. But if we have any accession to our population, let it be skilled farmers, who know how to cultivate and improve the soil and who have substantial means to buy lands.

THE MARSHAL'S BONDSMEN.

When we return from the mass meeting in Edgecombe, we shall endeavor to learn who are the bondsmen of Marshal Carrow. We shall ask them if they approve of the imprisonment, by Holden and Kirk, of John Kerr, Dr. Ross, Hon. S. P. Hill, and others, without any charge legally preferred against them; if they approve of the hanging of Rogers, Murray, Patton and others, by Kirk and his instruments, and then approve, also, of the Marshal's giving special favors, while they are on his official bond.

If the Marshal's bondsmen are not carpet-baggers and scalawags, they will tell him not to interfere longer with Sheriff Lee in the discharge of his duty in executing the criminal law of the State on Kirk.

They should say to Carrow, "Execute the law; we will not allow you to go special bail for a man who has violated all law, human and divine. Kirk must give bail, or we withdraw our names."

It is a sacred right to see a traitor North Carolinian, using his position to screen from the just penalty of the law, a villain who has arrested, imprisoned and persecuted native North Carolinians, not only without law, but against the law and Constitution.

RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—We gather from the Standard the information that Judge O. H. Thomas, of the third Judicial Circuit, has resigned, in consequence of his election to Congress, and that Gov. Holden has appointed his late State Troops Colonel, W. J. Clarke, the hero of three wars, to fill the vacancy.

As the editor is absent in Edgecombe, we venture to exclaim, Down with the military cocktail and on with the civil ermine!—The calls of one's country, whether to military or civil duty, are imperative and must be obeyed, so we suppose the appointment will be accepted. But what a damper this will be to the fond hopes of our friend, George Green, in the meantime!

The farmers of Surry, says the Mt. Airy News, are sending larger crops of wheat than usual.

CIVIL CODE COMMISSION.

The appointment and continuance of this Commission is an iniquity and a crime against the people of the State, which ought to be punished without benefit of clergy. The pressure of the people against it, led the General Assembly at its repentant and last session to pass a law, dissolving the Commission at once, but by some piece of legerdemain, used in more cases than one, by interested parties upon the engrossing committees or the clerks and attaches of that body, the bill after passing through all the various stages of legislation, failed to be ratified, because it could not be found. Who lost that bill? Does Judge Tourgee know anything about it?

So far as we are informed of the labor of this Commission, it has been chiefly confined to the simple copying the New York Code, with certain changes to adapt it as nearly as possible to our present circumstances. This has not employed, to any extent, but one of its members, requiring the two others to revise and amend his work. But it has been so bunglingly prepared, that what one session of the Legislature would adopt was found to fit so badly, it had to be amended or repealed at a subsequent session. And now, except among that class of lawyers whose business has been large and very general, it will be found that those who have not given the closest possible attention to it, cannot give the necessary advice to clients. Almost every day the most difficult questions are arising under this Code, in matters which ought to be generally understood by the people.—And there is no end to this. New York has been trying this Code for more than twenty years and her best legal talent feel that they have not begun to touch bottom yet, in settling the endless difficulties which are constantly occurring.

This iniquity is not only enormously expensive requiring a heavy salary for three men, which has been enjoyed by two Judges, receiving stated salaries besides, and a very heavy expenditure for printing &c. but it provides for a most onerous and unusual tax upon every man who goes to law for any purpose, and produces greater doubt and difficulty in the minds of the people as to the "uncertainties of the law." The processes for action in debt, for matters of probate, for guardians, executions, administrations, &c. ought to be very simple, easy and cheap. Under our old system, the people generally understood these matters, but now it is difficult for the people to understand them. Let the whole thing be quelched at soon as possible. The people demand a return and a speedy one to our old Court system and laws, as cheaper, more prompt and far more satisfactory.—The $20,000 which this Commission and Code have cost the State, besides the heavy costs to the people in fees &c. has been worse than thrown away, and belongs to the category of corruption and stealage foisted upon us by Radical carpet baggers and scalawags.

INVISIBLE EMPIRE.

Does Pilgrim Ashley belong to the "Invisible Empire?" He certainly belongs to the fraternity of invisible editors, if what we hear be true.

We hope the invisible editor of the Standard will show himself, and now that he has "full swing," tell the people of North Carolina about his bargain and sale of their school lands in Eastern North Carolina, first for $30,000, and then for $50,000 when he knew that Bibles, to whom the land was bargained off, had re sold it for $90,000. You know, Pilgrim that these things can be proven incontestibly.

O! thou invisible editor and visible hypocrite, tell the people of North Carolina if you have any interest in the sale of these lands, dedicated to the education of their children! Tell them if you have any interest in anything in the State except (visibly) its Treasury and, (invisibly,) in the Standard office.

CHATHAM AND THE U. S. SENATOR.

MR. EDITOR:—The lively interest that the important position of United States Senator has elicited has not been confined merely to those who "furnish matter" for the newspapers, but the masses of the people are deeply impressed. Who is competent to hold the high position, and who would be admitted into that new tyranni—cal,—though nevertheless powerful,—Congress, are questions of grave import to the people of North Carolina. We have achieved a glorious victory, and our only object is to make that redound to the glory of the Old North State. In her former pristine days she was prolific of patriotic and able statesmen, nor is her escutcheon less glorious to day with illustrious names.

With regard to the admissibility of the successful candidate, Mr. Editor, I entirely dissent from a "Citizen of Yancy," and think the views advanced by Col. R. H. Cowan in his Alleghany Springs letter, accord with those of the Conservative people of North Carolina.

But the object of this letter is to claim for the centre of the State the position of U. S. Senator. The East has the honor (?) of a Pool, and the West the honor of a Shipp.

No county deserves the consideration of the Legislature more than Chatham, as reference to the two last election tables will show; and in the name of the people of Chatham, I would present for the position of U. S. Senator, that able lawyer and accomplished gentleman,—the only prominent candidate with Judge Shipp for the Attorney Generalship,—John Manning Jr. of Pittsboro.

Assured that with such a Senator the interests of North Carolina would be materially advanced,

I remain,
Yours truly,
CONSERVATIVE.

Pittsboro', N. C., Sept. 26, 1870.

CONFLICT BETWEEN WHITES AND BLACKS.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 21.—Much excitement prevails in Laurens county on account of a disturbance between whites and negroes. Both parties are armed and organized. Seven colored men have been killed. The Reform party charge that these disturbances are a part of a pre-arranged plan of the secret leagues to create excitement for political effect. The Republicans indignantly deny the charge. At last accounts all was quiet.

II.

CHARLES-AUGUSTIN SAINTE-BEUVE.

The Edinburgh Review contains this sentence with reference to the very eminent author under examination: "It is somewhat difficult to review comprehensively the life and literary labors of a man so versatile and various a genius as Sainte Beuve * * * * it were as hopeless to attempt, by describing the tract of a bee across the countless flowers of a garden, to give a flavor of its honey, as to try to give a notice of the literary qualities of Sainte Beuve to those who have not read his writings."—The London Athenæum, in characterizing our author, speaks of his "all searching and ever-working intelligence." What a task then it would be, by careful analysis, to separate and lay bare all the inner workings of his vigorous, piercing and delicate intellect, and to examine the chief characteristics of those works that have rendered his name immortal. To do this would indeed require a skill in the use of the critical apparatus, a mastery over the nicest subtleties of thought and the most delicate shadings of language, a refined and far reaching genius, and a touch at once graceful, artisaic and bold, every way equal to those which distinguished the great writer whose glories I celebrate.

I turn away in despair from such an attempt, and with such crude thoughts as may be suggested, by a contemplation of his literary character and a reflection or two gathered from other sources, will leave the subject, contented if what I may have written, shall introduce to the reader one of the most illustrious names that belong to the splendid roll of literary men in the 19th century.

The place which Sainte Beuve will occupy in the gallery of eminent authorship will be that of the CRITIC. By common consent, both in France and in Great Britain, he is allowed to have been in the department of criticism preeminent. The verdict of all capable and cultured people is that he was par excellence the critic of the world.

Our own country has given some good specimens of critical art. Edwin P. Whipple, Wm. H. Prescott, George Wm. Curtis, Charles P. Kingsbury, Hugh S. Legare, Dr. A. T. Bledsoe and a few others, have written some really valuable and able papers, critical and otherwise, but they fall far below the European standard, if we except an article or two by the last two writers named.

England and Scotland, so fruitful in men of genius, have produced many eminent essayists and critics, but none of these are comparable in acuteness, analytical power, brilliancy and originality to Sainte-Beuve. These writers have not been men of catholic sympathies and taste, however able and learned and eloquent. They have been swayed by political or personal bias, or "cribbed, cabined and confined" by the narrow prejudices of religious zeal or pride of country. Go back to the days of Gifford, or coming down to a somewhat later period, read the essays of Lord Jeffrey, fine as they are, or of Sydney Smith, or of Thomas Carlyle, or DeQuincey, or Talfourd, or Stepl ens, or Mackintosh, or Lockhart, or Macaulay or Hallam, or Matthew Arnold, or Wil on, ("Kit North") or Croker, or Scott, or indeed any of the long line of gifted and brilliant periodical writers, and you will readily perceive, how much these writers are self-imprisoned victims of prejudices which rendered them incapable of exercising the highest and most perfect critical art.

Lord Macaulay, a man of poetic talent and sympathy, a scholar of varied and rare attainments, a writer of surpassing clearness, eloquence and force, with his kindling periods and epigrammatic sentences, we have long regarded as the most entertaining of all essayists and historians. In many particulars he possessed the highest qualifications of a great critic. It is the fashion now to decry his brilliant paradoxes and style of perpetual splendor. I confess to an exceeding admiration of all this, for I can read Macaulay, at times, when any other work will either cloy the appetite or fail to awaken the attention. But his chief and great faults, as a reviewer, lie in his intense prejudices, in his contempt for spiritual religion and pure philosophy, in his insufferable dogmatism and utilitarian views. But for these, his position in the future as a critic would have been as high as the throne upon which Sainte Beuve sits. Hallam, great in many respects, failed to reach the front-rank of criticism because he lacked the imaginative and emotional. He had a judicial mind of high capabilities, was discriminating, cautious and, in the main, impartial, but he only delighted in the regular, the systematic, the smooth, the dove-tailed and jointed. He had no cordial appreciation of the grand masters, the bold and impassioned authors of Europe. His visual organs were limited in their range; his tastes were correct in some departments of human learning, but he lacked breadth and catholicity. So with Lord Jeffrey. Very precise and elegant in the structure of his sentences; very cordial in his appreciative notices of contemporary writers, he was in a perpetual straight jacket and looked at many great questions through a false medium of passions and narrow prejudices.—Thomas De Quincey, who, in accuracy of learning, philosophical endowment and purity of style, surpassed all of his contemporaries, never ascended to the highest plane of criticism. A writer of very great power and originality, he was always tethered and controlled by certain mental idiosyncrasies and crotchets and prejudices and failed to do for Great Britain what Sainte-Beuve has done for France—to furnish specimens of the most consummate critical exercises. The most eminent of living English critics, Matthew Arnold, abounds in glaring faults of style and thought, and is so full of petty biases, affectations and prejudices as to forever prevent him from becoming a great power in letters.

Unlike all these, Saint-Beuve was no victim of literary dandyism, no slave to party demands, no enemy to creeds or countries, no "hired master of tongue fence." As I said in my former article, his was essentially a loving nature, and, as a resultant, he was essentially a loving critic. He knew how to dip his pen in gall and how to irritate the literary epidermis, as in his articles on Boileau and Chateaubriand, and Rousseau, yet he always derived a keen satisfaction from pointing out the excellencies of any author under treatment. He belonged "to none of those close corporations of literary Ishmaelites that applauded all within and denounce all without the pale—he weighed all authors fairly in his literary scales, whatever their nationality, sect or party; and we feel that the estimates he has placed upon them mark their exact value."

The secret, or rather some of the secrets of his success, were his conscientious devotion to his work and the general fairness that characterized his discussion of whatever topics he touched. In his splendid "Monday Chat" papers he displayed the most extensive and varied scholarship, and he labored upon each of these most assiduously, working from four to five days steadily on each. These weekly articles embraced a wide field of discussion. He wrote literary portraits of nearly every celebrated man or woman in Europe. He treated new and old topics with marvellous freshness and interest, in a style the very perfection of purity, delicacy, beauty, elegance and strength. He displayed the utmost familiarity with the literature of every period and country and that without pedantry or vanity. An excellent American writer, says of "Causeries du Lundi," "the finesse of his workmanship, the brilliancy and exquisite delicacy of his style, his immense and varied knowledge, his catholic taste and comprehensive sympathies, and, above all, his rare sense and almost unerring judgment, place" these papers, "among the most perfect literary products of the century, and make it hard to say whether they excel in fascination or instruction" * * The Edinburg Review, in speaking of these very Monday essays remarks: "Such facility and regularity of literary production are, considering the quality of the work, without a parallel in literature, for the "Causeries du Lundi" have been saluted on all sides as immortal, and will in all probability live as long as the French language." This same reviewer adds: "We feel we are in the hands of a master of his art, while the peculiarity of his method invests his subject with minute biographic details and historic incident, which add irresistable charm to the perusal. In fact, amid all the ranges of volumes which fill our libraries, no doubt is more instructive or more delightful reading is to be found any where than in the twenty-nine volumes in which they have been collected."

There were two chief characteristics which contributed to render him the first of critics. One was his theory of criticism, the other his manner of effecting his end.

In the first place, he invented a new method of treating a writer. It has been named by other critics "the psychological method." Dr. Mathews, in an able article upon Sainte Beuve, has thus explained this method for the first time introduced by our author. He says: "He regarded a book not so much a product of art, or an embodiment of facts, doctrines, and opinions, as a photograph of the author, a portraiture of his mind and character. The human aspect of the work was of more importance than its cunning workmanship. It was 'the precious life-blood of a master's spirit,' a kind of incarnation of the author's soul, and hence has to be judged not so much with reference to the skill displayed in its execution, as to the intellectual and spiritual life that breathed through it, and the creative ideas that gave it birth."

The other characteristic referred to was, his wonderful ability to interpret the genius and character of men and his remarkable and surpassing art in compressing the very soul and essence of a ponderous volume in the compass of a few pages. He had an exquisite eye for the beautiful, and he could seize upon the salient points of a work of genius with a precision that was unerring, whilst in a few elegant passages he would give you the exact intellectual status of the writer he reviewed. As some unknown writer has happily remarked of him: "He ascended from the stream to the fountain, detected the spirit of the author in the coloring of his work, analyzed his genius from its development in words, and from the foot of Hercules drew a portrait of the person." His criticism was always extremely careful and minute, and generally marked by quiet fairness and candor. His direct lay in his preference for "regulated and harmonious talents" to those gigantic minds who stimulate and arouse by their vigorous, extravagant, ebullient and irregular originality. He preferred Pope and Cowper to Shakespeare and Milton.

I close this already too long article in the judicious words of the Edinburg Review: "In spite of all short comings he was a writer of European renown and of marvellous elegance, of wondrous fertility and inexhaustible energy. As a pure man of letters it will be long, we imagine, before France, and perhaps even Europe, will produce his rival; he was an epitome of the finest culture of modern time.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1870.

JESSE N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

MAYOR'S COURT.—His Honor, Mayor Harrison, was entirely without business yesterday morning. Not a single case was entered upon the docket. We hope this state of affairs may continue.

COTTON.—Cotton sold yesterday in this city at 14½. Supplies are coming in freely.

Read Dr. Pettie's notice of mules and a fine mare for sale, and other attractive advertisements in to-day's SENTINEL.

PRISONER SHOT.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Deputy Sheriff, Magnin, discovered that the negro, Wm. Stinson, in prison under charge of committing rape on an aged white lady in this county last summer, was making an attempt to cut through the floor of his cell and went in to handcuff him. The prisoner resisted and snatched the bunch of keys from Mr. Magnin's hand and was about to strike him with them. There being three other prisoners in the same cell, the officer's situation was a critical one, and he was forced to fire on the prisoner, which he did, lodging the ball in his left shoulder. Whether the wound is a fatal one we had not ascertained at the time of writing this paragraph for our evening edition.

This negro is a very desperate character, and has made attempts before to take advantage of the jailers and make his escape. He declared just before he was shot that he knew he would be hung any how, and would as soon die one time as another.

P. S. An examination of the wound proves it not to be serious.

POLICY HOLDERS' LIFE AND TONTINE ASSURANCE COMPANY.—We direct attention of all those who are considering the subject of life assurance, to the new advertisement of the above Company; the only purely mutual Company in the Southern States, owned and controlled by the policy holders themselves, who receive all the profits arising to the Company. Chartered by the States of North and South Carolina and investing all premiums in the State in which they are received; it gives all the advantages of a "Home" Company, in each State without the disadvantage of being "local" and therefore liable to great fluctuations in the rate of mortality. In its Board of Trustees will be noticed the names of many of the most prominent and successful men in this and the adjoining States.

JOHNSTON SUPERIOR COURT.—This Court closed yesterday. As we mentioned before, Charles H. Sneed was convicted of horse stealing. His sentence was the mildest the law allows—five years in the Penitentiary—from which he took an appeal.—The case of Massey, included in the same charge was not reached.

Henry Herring, for the killing of Dixon Davis was put on trial and convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary.

A negro woman charged with infanticide, in killing her own newborn, illegitimate infant, submitted to a verdict of manslaughter, and was sentenced to ten years in the Penitentiary.

Other cases of a minor character were disposed of.

ANOTHER SPECIAL PREMIUM.—Messrs. Wm. F. Beasley & Co., Wholesale Tobacco merchants, Louisville, Ky., authorize and request us to announce that they offer a special premium of $10 for the best box of chewing tobacco exhibited at our State Fair this Fall, and $5 for the second best.

Messrs. Beasley & Co., are the Agents in Louisville for many large manufacturing establishments in Virginia, and do a heavy tobacco business with sections West and South in tobacco and cigars. They make the above offer as an indication that trade is open to tobacco dealers of this section in the West, and for the purpose of opening the way to our fine tobaccos in their market.

A LAMB IN LUMBO.—We are informed by a friend of Harnett, that one of Kirk's lambs, having tired of the service prior to the disbanding, took a walk across the country for health and exercise; in other words, deserted. In his wanderings he found himself in the rural seclusions of Harnett, where he got into a difficulty with a citizen, was arrested by the civil authority and lodged in jail at Lillington, where he remains subject to future proceedings.—Our friend informs us that he exults in the appellation of "Kirk's lamb," and amuses himself by bleating piteously at every one who passes the window of his cell.

A MISTAKE.—We judge that we were in error the other day in stating as we heard it, that Bailey of Salisbury had challenged Maj. Avery. The papers assert that it was vice versa. Very well. We know "who garbled that letter," but who had Bailey arrested? That's the question.

THE MOUNT AIRY News is to be enlarged and brought out in a new dress in about two weeks. The good people of that section of the State ought to give the News a liberal support, both on account of the intrinsic worth of the paper itself, and for the general convenience, and interest of the locality.

IMMERSION.—On last Sabbath Rev. John Jones, of Surry county, aged 81 years, baptized, by immersion, Harden C. Herring, aged 88.

QUERY.—We have been asked whether the Pilgrim from Cape Cod, the invisible editor of the Standard, gets a salary there for his services, in addition to the four thousand dollars he and family are drawing from the State for managing the public schools? We must answer that we don't know, but suppose he does, as it is characteristic of the breed to get all they can while they are at it; that's what they come for.

MODEL JUDGE.—The Jefferson Times, a Radical paper in Ashe county, says of Judge Mitchell, that he was holding his Court in Wilkes county, and that he is a model Judge, and that at that Court he saw Hon. Nat. Boyden, who told him that Judge Henry was holding the Courts of the 8th District in place of Judge Cloud, and that Judge Henry was regarded there as a model Judge and high toned gentleman; "a little more" he says "than we of the 11th can say of his Honor, Judge Cloud, Judge of the 8th District." What's outf Trivett had better be careful or he will be read out. Its more than the leaders can stand, for a Radical editor to say, that Judge Mitchell is a model Judge and that Judge Cloud is not.

THE SHERIFFS.—The Sheriffs of Duplin, Onslow and Stanly, settled with the Public Treasurer on Tuesday last. Up to Wednesday morning the 28th, no Radical Sheriff, from a Radical county, had settled. Gentlemen remember that to-morrow, Friday, till 12 o'clock, P. M., is the last day of grace. Several settled on yesterday, but many are still behind.

Some rogue broke into a market stall in Newbern on Sunday night last. Wanted something to eat we suppose.

For the Sentinel.

DAVIDSON COUNTY.

On Saturday the 24th inst., pursuant to previous appointment, a large portion of the citizens of Davidson county, assembled at the court house in Lexington, for the purpose of giving public expression to their sentiments in reference to the man who are "holding over" as Sheriff and Commissioners, or forcing their services upon the county against the will of the people fairly and openly expressed at the ballot box. The meeting was organized by electing Hon. Henry Walser, chairman and James R. Dickson, secretary. Before taking his seat the chairman stated briefly the object of the meeting, after which, on motion of Hon. Frank C. Robbins, the chairman appointed a committee of twelve to draft suitable resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the people in reference to the aforesaid men of "holding over" notoriety, viz: M. H. Pinnix, Esq., chairman; Gen. Geo. Smith, Columbus Sink, David Jenkins, John Conrad, William Hill, Maj. W. A. Hannah, Solomon A. Mock, John Sharp, Frank Smith, P. A. Hoover and Christian Pickle.

The committee having retired, Dr. Jas. M. Leach was called on for a speech, and as he was present, he of course responded, and to the great delight of the audience entertained them for at least three quarters of an hour in one of his happiest efforts. At the conclusion of Gen. Leach's remarks the committee on resolutions having returned, their chairman M. H. Pinnix, Esq., submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the State recognizes the time-honored principle that "the people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good," and declares "that all political power is vested in, and derived from the people—all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only and is instituted for the good of the whole," "that for the redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections shall be often held"—"that the people of this State have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and policy thereof, and,

WHEREAS, The Constitution further declares, that "in each county a Sheriff and Coroner shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, as is prescribed for members of the General Assembly, and shall hold their office for two years"—"that in each county, there shall be elected biennially by the qualified voters thereof, the following officers: A Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor and five Commissioners," and,

WHEREAS, In accordance with the several provisions above named, the people of North Carolina, did, on the 4th day of August last, hold an election for State and county officers; and,

WHEREAS, The candidates in this county pledged themselves to abide by the will of the people; now, therefore, we, the people of Davidson county, without regard to party, race or color, in mass meeting assembled, do, Resolve 1st. That in this State we recognize, and adhere to, a free, republican, representative form of government, wherein the will of the people governs, and should be respected.

2nd. That all good and fair-minded men, who seek office at the hands of the people, always bow, in submission, to the will of the majority freely and publicly expressed; and those who depart from this time-honored and binding custom, are not only wanting in correct notions of Republican institutions and free elections, but are unfit to hold any public office of profit, trust or honor.

3rd. That we recognize the officer to be a representative and servant of the people and not the people servants of the officer; and no man is justifiable in setting up a claim to office as a matter of private right and individual benefit, in defiance of the people's wishes and to the damage of the public interest.

4th. That the Sheriff and County Commissioners, chosen two years ago, were elected for the term of two years.

5th. That any attempt on the part of said Sheriff and Commissioners to "hold over" beyond the two years prescribed in the Constitution, is a dangerous precedent, a gross usurpation of power, anti-Republican in sentiment, subversive of the fundamental principles of good government, a defiance of the will of the people, a flagrant violation of the principles of right, and justice, and a reckless attempt to nullify the laws of the land.

6th. That the attempt of Jacob A. Bowers, former Sheriff, and William Loflin, John L. Snider and Calvin Taylor, three of the former Commissioners, to thrust themselves upon the people against their will, fairly and publicly expressed at the ballot box, is wrong, unfair and disgraceful, and deserves and hereby receives the censure and unqualified condemnation of the whole people of Davidson county.

Having read the resolutions, Mr. Pinnix then proceeded in a very pointed and able manner to show up the fraud and corruption practiced upon the people by some of the framers of the constitution, and more especially the unqualified meanness and unworthiness of the little men among us in our own county, who are forcing the people to accept of their services against their will. Hon. F. C. Robbins and J. H. Wilson, Esq. were also called on for speeches and responded briefly. Hon. J. T. Brown was present but owing to the lateness of the hour he very politely requested his fellow citizens to excuse him until a more convenient season.

On motion the Secretary was requested to furnish copies of the proceedings to the Raleigh SENTINEL, Old North State and Greensboro Patriot.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

HENRY WALSER, Ch'm.

—J. R DICKSON, Sec'y

Greensboro Patriot and Old North State, please copy from SENTINEL.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000 000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,5 0,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and till dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,031,141,00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.
One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.
It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.
It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.
I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.
Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x36x28x50in; Wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured and his profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Sir Hiberto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplications of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to exist through life, or for a series of years at proposed.
The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
